

ks General Manager John Schne

Autor: liny195 - 2018/10/09 08:54

Tom Landry reached the championship game in his eighth season. Jimmy Johnson did it in his fourth.

Jason Garrett enters his eighth full season seeking his first NFC Championship Game as a coach.

While Terrell Owens questioned why the Cowboys coach still has a job Sherrick McManis Jersey , Daryl Johnston preaches patience.

I think you ve got to be able to give a head coach time, Johnston said on DFW s Fox4, via the Dallas Morning News. It s one of the great things John Madden said, and this was about the San Francisco 49ers when they moved away from Steve Mariucci, but they had no plan after that. Sometimes you do that and all of a sudden you find yourself in a decade of mediocrity Tramon Williams Jersey , and in San Francisco s case, not even mediocrity. That was a tough decade. They made a change for change s sake and nobody was there.

Jason Garrett, in my opinion, moving forward gives Dallas the best opportunity. They ve got that window right now with a quarterback and a very talented running back on rookie contracts. To make a change right now, that would be sabotage to that organization. Keep everything in place Bob Lilly Jersey , take a run with this window that s there.

The Cowboys have made the playoffs twice since Garrett replaced Wade Phillips during the 2010 season. They went 1-1 in 2014, losing at Green Bay in the divisional round in the controversial Dez Bryant catch/no-catch game, and lost to the Packers at home in the divisional round in 2016 when they were the top seed.

Dallas is 67-53 in the regular season with Garrett, who would appear to be on the hot seat with the Cowboys failing to reach the postseason last year.

There s an ebb and flow, Johnston said. I think everybody has to take a step back when you have a tough season. When Dallas has struggled and they haven t been able to follow up a good season with another good season Sean Taylor Jersey , there s been a pretty glaring reason why that hasn t happened.

Johnston expects the Cowboys to surprise a lot of people this season.

Earl Thomas, Frank Clark and Byron Maxwell skipped the Seahawks organized team activities Thursday, Curtis Crabtree of Sports Radio KJR and PFT reports.

Thomas has not taken part in any of the team s voluntary offseason program as he seeks either a new contract or a trade. But Seahawks coach Pete Carroll said Thursday he has talked with Thomas and expects the Pro Bowl safety to return for the mandatory minicamp.

The Seahawks mandatory minicamp runs June 12-14, and the team could fine Thomas up to $84,435 for skipping all three days.

Seahawks General Manager John Schneider has said he has received assurances from Thomas%?representation that Thomas won%? hold out in absence of a new deal. Thomas currently is scheduled to make $8.5 million in base salary before becoming a free agent in 2019.

Thomas has drawn interest on the trade market but nothing to entice the Seahawks to deal him. The Cowboys <http://www.buffalobillsteamonline.com/kelvin-benjamin-jersey> , though, remain interested.

<http://www.officialusafootballs.com/atlanta-falcons>

=====